

good food guide awards

The Sydney Morning Herald and The Age Good Food Guide Awards serve as the official launch for Australia's most respected restaurant guides and are widely recognised as the industry's night of nights. A glamorous invitation-only event is held in both Sydney and Melbourne, attended by 500 leading restaurateurs, chefs, food writers, reviewers, sponsors and media. The much coveted chef's hats for excellence are awarded along with the Restaurant and Chef of the Year, delivering significant media coverage.
