The Sydney Morning Herald Growers' Market

Sydney's original and most popular premium food market is held on the first Saturday of each month at Pyrmont Bay Park overlooking Sydney Harbour. Over 80 stalls offer quality local produce from fresh fruit and vegetables to lamb, beef, pork, seafood, cheese, smallgoods and more. Enjoy coffee with a cooked breakfast – sausages, bacon and eggs, pastries or freshly baked bread, and a copy of the weekend Herald. There are regular cooking demonstrations, book sales, flower markets – all in a great atmosphere.

siff.com.au